

Recruitment of Student Researcher (Art / Craft / Design)
Sony Computer Science Laboratories, Kyoto Laboratory

Kyoto Laboratory was launched in April 2020 to explore alternative paths of technological development that are truer to human values, cultures, and traditions. We are looking for student researchers in art- and design-related fields, who will pursue self-initiated projects within the laboratory. Staff researchers will serve as mentors, and offer guidance and support. We welcome applicants interested in the intersection of arts/crafts and technology.

1. Eligible applicants: Students
2. Starting Date: To be decided upon negotiation with candidate
3. Employment Type : Research Assistant (Hourly pay)
Please note that we will not be able to provide transportation and accommodation expenses for those who live far away.
4. Research Budget : Provided, on a limited basis
5. Contract Duration: 6 months
6. Workplace: Shimogyo-ku, Kyoto
7. Selection Process
Please prepare the following documents (there are no formatting requirements), and submit them using the application form below.
  - Curriculum vitae
  - Project proposal (a document outlining the project the candidate wishes to pursue at the lab.)
  - Portfolio of your work (if any)

Deadline: Oct 30 (Fri), 2020
